Subject: Hitchcock Visit
Chris:I just spoke to Hitchcock, (after our conversation). He is hoping to get the Burton appointment on Wednesday afternoon, April 9th. This is the meeting about the Board extension that would be attended by Hitchcock, his kids, David and me. We don't know when the Congressman will be available yet, but Bruce's thought is that the kids will be better spokespersons with the benefit of their experience with the Board behind them. Thus, the best days would be Tuesday the 8th or, preferably in Bruce's mind, the afternoon of Wednesday the 9th. Bruce just wanted to make sure that this was okay with you as far as scheduling the kids' projects. I told him that I was confident that you would be flexible for whatever the Congressman's schedule was that week. At any rate, Bruce will be calling you to confirm things with you. Little did we know that your work with Bruce and these kids would be critical to the continued existence of the Board. Great work and thanks. Tom
