Subject: FOIA request on Jesse Curry: J-Trak project
IS THIS THE MEMO YOU NEEDED?To: Jeremy Gunn/ARRB @ ARRBcc: (bcc: R ecord/ARRB)From: Sydney Reddy/ARRBDate: 03/19/97 10:11:11 AMSubject: FOIA request on Jesse Curry: J-Trak projectMr. Max Holland had made a FOIA request consisting of suspected FBI files on Jesse Curry, Chief of the DPD at the time of JFK's assassination. Mr. Holland believes that a files exists on Curry due to the several critical statements he made of the FBI's knowledge of Lee Harvey Oswald. Mr. Holland has requested all FBI information on Jesse Curry from November 22, 1963 to the time of his death in 1980.Mr. Holland only has his suspicions as to the existence of a FBI file on Chief Curry. He does not point to any information that confirms the existence of a file in the information that has already been released, such as a FBI record that when mentioning Curry also refers to some form of additional information on him (a file number or something else).This is essentially a request made of the FBI on somewhat shaky proof and I am not sure how the ARRB might be able to help Mr. Holland.
