Subject: Today

I was not feeling well before last night's Seder, and I feel worse this morning. I expect to be in the office tomorrow. The most pressing issues are Zapruder and the new guidelines. I considered doing some Z lobbying, but did not do so. I decided it was your call. You should get Henry on Board. He liked my draft, but then seemed to be uncertain during the Board discussion. Bill is very confused. He really wants the film and was persuaded by the "base" reference, which I think is a bogus issue. Who knows with Anna? Kermit is ready to go for it and let the chips fall where they may. He said Congress created us to make tough choices. Well, that's not true. Congress did not create the Board to make the tough choices on all issues related to the assassination. Congress did not create the Board to make the tough choice on closing down Dealey Plaza to vehicles. Etc. etc. Jack is clear, but he appears not to be leading anyone else. I have given you a draft of the review policies. Please make any changes, which I can incorporate tomorrow morning.
