Subject: Court Reporter for Riebe Deposition--Closing the Loop
I ended up speaking to Miller Reporting Company yesterday (about the issue of "fresh" audiotapes vs. used audiotapes--we want brand new audiotapes used, not used tapes as in the past), and found out that Mr. Haines (our usual/preferred reporter for medical depositions) will not be at this deposition, since he just underwent surgery and is recuperating. However, they confirmed with me that they will have a court reporter at the lobby of Archives II at 9:30 Wednesday morning, and that this person will expect to be picked up in the lobby by ARRB staff on our way up to Steve Tilley's office. I gave the scheduler (per her request) the street address of Archives II, and Steve Tilley's office phone number. Miller's scheduler Nancy will call me later today with the final detail--the name of the court reporter, so that we will know who to look for in the lobby at Archives II. Tracy, thanks for your help in setting this up. I wanted you to know that Miller will be calling me today, instead of you, with the final detail of the name of the reporter, since I will be the person looking for him/her in the lobby. END
