Subject: 2nd conversation w/ S.C. Blakeslee re: Lincoln Estate

Jeremy: The only lead we still suggest following is to contact the JFK Library...What is your thought???----- -----CALL REPORT Issue # 78 Document's Author: Brian Rosen & Dave Montague/ARRB Date Created: 05.22.1997 Who initiated the call? Evelyn Lincoln Project Subject: 2nd conversation w/ S.C. Blakeslee re: Lincoln Estate Description of the Call We spoke w/ Blakeslee today as part of our final effort to locate diaries/papers of the late Evelyn Lincoln. We wanted to confirm statements made by Robert White & Maria Ray concerning the inventory made by White & access to material re: Ray. Blakeslee made the following statements re: his knowledge/participation in the inventory of the Estate & the disposition of materials:-Ray had 2 or 3 attorneys over the course of this affair-2 separate inventories were made...Blakeslee retained a "Stephanie Kenyon" when he 1st became involved w/the Estate in order to have an official appraisal for the Court...The appraisal did not involve the contents of the trunks or file cabinets relevant to our interests...This appraisal is the one mentioned by Noble/Ray & has since been faxed to us...- Blakeslee confirmed White's statement that Blakeslee prepared the typed version of White's inventory (using White's original notes) & submitted it to White for his signature...Blakeslee said he'll look for White's original notes (they may be w/Noble as part of transfer of Estate files) & send them to us if found...-Blakeslee confirmed Ray's statement that Ray did not have access to the file cabinets & trunks while staying at the Lincoln's apartment because the cabinets & trunks were locked-Blakeslee description of what was removed from the apartment falls in between the versions given by Ray & white...His understanding is that Ray took a few items back to Florida, but not numerous boxes as White described & nothing that could be considered an assassination record....this act prompted the litigation between White & Ray We thanked Blakeslee for his time & asked him to call if he finds anything relevant to our efforts. Stephen C. Blakeslee, Jr. (540.837.1389) Rural Route 1, PO Box 83 Boyce, VA 22620-----John Noble, Esq.
