Subject: Request for Additional Info. Letter Navy-1 (ONI)

Christopher and I met with Ron today and made our case that the original letter, as signed out, does not conflict with any searches previously requested by this agency (ARRB).He was unwilling to let the original letter (which I still hold) go out today; he felt strongly that whatever we send them should acknowledge our receipt, review, and due consideration of ONI's initial statement of compliance from the Navy Compliance Official.I got the sense during our discussion with him that Ron was going to abandon his rewrite, and go back to the original letter and just add one paragraph saying "we have reviewed ONI's response to you, and are appreciative, but want to pursue some more issues." I believe he said he would be showing you this new draft on Wednesday.If for any reason you need the original letter, I have it, in pristine, unopened condition.
