I also had checked last November(see call reports) with Judy Barnes of the Federal Records Center at Suitland. I had explained the situation to her and she said that while the Army's permisison would be needed to examine the records, I could look at the SF-135 transfer forms to see if such records exist at Suitland. No appointment is necessary. If you wnat to make arrangements to go to Suitland, let me know. This is the update that you requested for the J-track project.
