Subject: Navy compliance huge fax
As we have done in the past, I plan to file a copy of your memo from today, the one to the FILE, in the compliance binder, but without the enclosures since enclosures are just so voluminous. I will make a note to the binder however, that the enclosures can be found in 4.12.3 which is the navy file. Please let me know when you've initialed the memo so I can distribute. Thanks, Cathyps - can you also let me know about the new fax that arrived today and whether or not it belongs to the fax from yesterday. Thanks.
