Subject: Conference Call
We are having difficulties scheduling a Conference Call this week because there is no time when more than three members are available. I therefore propose that we do not have the call this week. I will, of course, send to you a short update on current matters similar to those that I send after our regular calls. If you nevertheless would like to have a call this week, please let me know today so that we can make arrangements. I will let you know either later today or early a.m. tomorrow what the status is.
