Subject: Sorry!

I left out a return date for my trip! Unlike other trips, I don't think I'm going to try to get up to Western PA at the tail end of my D.C. stay, so I'd be looking for a return to Phoenix late Friday, say an 8 or 9 PM flight out of Washington. Just out of curiosity, though, how locked-in are we if we make a reservation (in case I changed my mind and tried to tack a PA swing onto the trip?). I heard from Bob that Joan is in today, and you're probably busy w/her visit, so no need to get back to me today on any of this. Tell her I said hello, if you think that would be appropriate. If not, not. Since I'm leaving for Hawaii Saturday morning, it would be good to know my travel plans by then, but no hurry otherwise. Sorry you get stuck w/making all these arrangements. If there's any way I can help, let me know. Thanks!
