Subject: Final Report Outline Draft
A little slow on the trigger, but I perused the final report outline draft. I think you've got all of the major components. The order may be worth discussing. I might suggest starting out with the description and background of the Board, discussing Board records review results next and then major projects, follow lessons learned with a recommendations section broken down into legislative recommendations and recommendations on how to handle Board clean-up, in addition to the other components you have like agency by agency breakdown.
