Rumor also has it that the owner of those tickets (I'd callthem a "pusher") was informed that had I been there, I might have hadsomething to say about the concert.$50 for Barry Manilow, huh? I'm curious... did this person also pay $75to see the Osmond reunion tour? Did she catch the KC and the SunshineBand show at the Capital Ballroom for only $100? Did she buy the newsingle from the Starland Vocal Band-- their first since "AfternoonDelight?" Maybe they can cast her in the movie version of "Eight isEnough" as Nancy (the blonde one).Good God. Barry Manilow as the first concert in the MCI Arena. Who willthey book next? Olivia Newton-John? Roberta Flack? The guy who sang"Run, Joey, Run?"And who pays to see these guys? Leisure suit-wearing, pet rock-owning,Gran Torino-driving (a red one, complete with the white blaze down theside like Starsky and Hutch), Wild Cherry ("Play That FunkMusic")-listening, Streets of San Francisco-watching 70s wanna-be's?Tell the young lady that if she has any tickets to the David Soul show atMerriweather Post, I want in. _____ Seriously, folks...I hope all of you are doing well. I thought about you last week when theanniversary made the news. In case I don't talk to you before the end ofthe month, have a very happy holiday season. You know, all those years Isaid that the holidays suck? I may have been a little mistaken.Anyway, I will definitely be in DC the first week of January, and I wouldlove to see all of you. Let me know if you are going to be around andcould stomach my presence.Marie... 6:00 p.m. weeknights on the Cartoon Network... The Superfriends.It's become a part of my normal routine. I'd suggest you watch, too--unless it would inspire you to start running around in... oh, never mind.Jeremy... thank you for remembering me when irreverance reared its uglyhead (the Manilow thing). It's nice to have a legacy, and I am proud ofmine. I hope you are doing well, my friend.Manuel... were you as disappointed in the Beavis and Butthead seriesfinale as I was? "No way, dude. That sucked." And how 'bout that classyhuman being from the Bay area, Latrell Sprewell? What a guy! Oh, yeah,that's right. I forgot-- I don't understand certain things, I have Record
