Subject: grand juries

Body: Please come talk to me about this.To: jeremy_gunn @ JFK-ARRB.GOVcc: (bcc: Jeremy Gunn/ARRB)From: ANELSON @ american.edu @ INTERNET @ INTERLIANT Date: 12/18/97 03:30:49 PMSubject: grand juriesJeremy Have someone on the staff check Case # 96-6264 from the US Court of Appeals of the 2nd District. This case was about releasing Grand Jury records for historical purposes. Judge was very favorable toward release. If I have my dates straight, Beschloss got privileged access to the LBJ tapes. He heard a few tapes before the rest of the public, for example and had time to arrange matters with his agent and editor. Actually, before he gained fame, he wrote a splendid book (Mayday) that I am always recommending to people. My problem with him is that after he collaborated with Strobe Talbott and found fame, he became coopted. He is always on the fence - never takes a strong stand. Witness his comment on Hersh. Anna
