Subject: Notice of Contact with Foreigners

1. I will be having dinner this weekend with a Russian named Boris Falikov, his wife, and two daughters. Boris is a friend and colleague who serves with me on the Experts Panel on Religion for the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe. He lives and works in Moscow, but is on a two to three-week trip to the US. I have never met his family members, although he has told me that his wife formerly was a diplomat at the Russian Embassy here in Washington.2. As you know, I am continuing in my efforts to make contact with Cuban diplomats here in Washington regarding Cuban records on the assassination.To the extent appropriate, please advise the proper authorities of these contacts.
