Subject: SCI clearances

The last conversation I had with the folks at CIA regarding who would handle our SCIs was on January 7. I spoke with a man named Chris who explained that they were reorganizing and our cases (along with others) were sitting in a pile waiting to be handed out after the reorganization (he thought this would be approx. the 12th of Jan). I explained the time sensitiveness of Jim Goslee's case and he said he would put it through right away (Jim has since been approved). I also canceled Sydney's at that time. Marie's is still over there and I haven't heard from anyone on it. I also asked to whom I should speak about Bob's marriage. Chris took the information and was going to have someone call me to discuss further. I have not heard from anyone on this either. I have no contact person to follow up on Bob and Marie and no contact person to send new cases over to. We have no less than 6 cases that need to be sent over as soon as we have a contact.
