Subject: NBC Pleadings file

Could you do a favor for me? Lawyers typically create what they call a "pleadings file" that includes the letters back and forth between opponents as well as their requests for admission, document requests, etc. I suspect that Carlie may not have been sending everything to us. Could you call her and say that we would like to make sure that our own pleadings file is complete. Ask if you can speak to whomever keeps the pleading file on the Sheridan-NBC matter, and then compare their records to ours and make sure that we have all important filings. (We are not asking for any internal DOJ memoranda.) I presume that this can be done by phone.Thanks.
