Subject: stuff for you to read

Body: Hi there. Okay. When you get here tomorrow morning, go to the SCIF. When you get there, go through the door and turn right. On the chair that sits in front of the desk that says, "FBI Team Working Area," you will see some things that I have marked "MARIE F." The papers on top are the FBI's 5/10/96 appeal of the Review Board's decision to release documents that reveal the FBI's foreign counterintelligence activities. The black binder below the papers is our response to the FBI appeal. If you read these two filings, you'll get a good start on the whole FCI appeal thing. Then, when I get here, I'll show you what to read next. (Both the FBI and the Review Board filed several follow-up letters/briefs after these two initial letters were filed.)So. Reminder: DO NOT GO TO THE FBI TOMORROW!!! Stay here and regain your sanity. Eat Girl Scout cookies. Be happy. --Laura
