Subject: Bruce Hitchcock's Student

Body: The paper is due next Wednesday, and the student could not get an extension. Bruce will fax me written questions today, and I will send the best "research leads" I can (as I did with Amy) before I commence my leave tomorrow afternoon. I did not consent to an interview, since I did that last year with another student, and although it helped him a lot, it was just too time-consuming. Too much going on right now. I do not think Bruce will be calling you to request a student interview, because the time before the paper is due is too short.
