

NR_key_name: 17484AD2D3E5F2D885256624006B8072

SendTo: Peter

CopyTo: Chet

DisplayBlindCopyTo:

BlindCopyTo:

From: CN=Joseph Freeman/O=ARRB

DisplayFromDomain:

DisplayDate: 06/15/1998

DisplayDate_Time: 3:35:23 PM

ComposedDate: 06/15/1998

ComposedDate_Time: 3:34:12 PM

Subject: JFK Brain memo

Here's the cold trail. Have you ever seen the children's show "Blue's Clues". Good luck, and look out for paw prints!
To: Chetcc: From: Joseph Freeman/ARRB Date: 06/15/98 10:20:26 AM Subject: JFK Brain memo
Chet, thank you for the trouble you're going through over this. I found a reference to the memo in an old email of mine and so now have reason to believe I wrote it during, or proximate to, January of '96. Since I always gave my documents date-related tags (eg, "061598.wpd" would be a memo I wrote on June 15, 1998), this may be of some help to you. I don't think I had the word "brain" in the the subject/title line of the memo (vulgar), but probably referred to "autopsy materials" and perhaps used the term "chain of custody" in the memo title line. Don't know if this is enough. Don't waste too much time on it, please. If you do find it, however, you might want to just email it to me (I wouldn't mind reading it again, in any case) in lieu of taking down relevant information for Cathy. Thanks.

Body:

recstat: Record

DeliveryPriority: N

DeliveryReport: B

ReturnReceipt:

Categories: