

NR_key_name: 473AC825BEA20F9785256626004BA648
SendTo: Bob
CopyTo: DisplayBlindCopyTo: BlindCopyTo:
From: CN=Joseph Freeman/O=ARRB
DisplayFromDomain:
DisplayDate: 06/17/1998
DisplayDate_Time: 9:47:37 AM
ComposedDate: 06/17/1998
ComposedDate_Time: 9:46:18 AM
Subject: The Philadelphia Wedding

I certainly want to come, and will do all I can to make it happen. Keep me posted! The site sounds lovely, you closet romantic you!
To: Joseph Freeman/ARRBcc: From: Bob Skwirot/ARRB Date: 06/16/98 12:41:11
PMSubject: The Philadelphia Wedding
Hyunsook and I are tentatively planning our wedding for July 19. We went to Philadelphia last weekend and found an appropriate outdoor space for the event: The Philadelphia Horticultural Center in Fairmount Park. It's not perfect, but it's a nice spot with trees, lots of green and shade that's, and its close to parking. The only negative is some highway noise in the background, but it should not be a problem. (OK, there is one other negative: the Japanese House located in the Horticultural Center. You know how Koreans and Japanese feel about each other. But the house is on the other side of the grounds.) The Horticultural Center is just the kind of place Hyunsook had in mind when we first started talking about the wedding for my family and friends. I am tempted to try to dissuade you from coming, not because Hyunsook or I don't want you here. We very much do. Bu it is much too far for you to come. However, I will not insult you. We would love to have you, but I you can't make it, we understand. We need a few more days- at least- to firm things up. When the important details are settled, I'll let you know.

Body:
recstat: Record
DeliveryPriority: N
DeliveryReport: B
ReturnReceipt: Categories: