The following is the text of a "draftexplanatory memorandum" and recommendations, which, until it was made public by the human rights group Human Rights Without Frontiers, was supposed to be confidential. Thankfully it was made public because it is clear from the text that not only is it factually incorrect it is very heavily slanted in an attempt to propose restrictive actions against minority religions and further create a climate of intolerance. This kind of work is not deserving of the Council of Europe and I have already responded to the report by sending an analysis and critique (including correcting the factually incorrect information regarding Church of Scientology) which is also being
