I think we agreed that it was unfortunate and that we should be verycareful in the future. I would like to respond to your comment on my conversation with Max HollandI suggested he call the Board so that he would know when the document would bereleased. I have done that before, but now that I know this means that he willreceive the document first, I will not do that again. I rarely speak to Max (hedid call this week) and did not know he received the document. Since I raised the issue and your paragraphs seem largely directed at myobjections, I would appreciate your sending this reply to all Board members. By the way, I saw a member of the AU faculty on campus yesterday whosefirst words were that Thomas had missed the point of the document. Anna
