Subject: Meeting agenda
I called Barry about the issues we hoped he would have ready for the Board meeting. As is always the case, he is still working on them. He hopes to have more information later today, but I am not confident that he will. Since I am out of the office tomorrow and he will be taking a half day tomorrow, anything that is not resolved today will not be addressed before Monday. If there is any flexibility in the Board meeting schedule, it might make sense to schedule the review of CIA records for Tuesday based on the hope that we could have some of this material ready for review then.
