Subject: Korean Internet Radio

Body: Bob forwarded this email to me and told me how much he enjoyed this lasts night. I was wondering if you had any ideas about German radio?... thanks, cathTo: Cathy Rodriguez/ARRBcc: From: Bob Skwirot/ARRB Date: 08/06/98 03:01:38 PMSubject: Korean Internet RadioHere's what Pete sent me on Korean internet radio. You might be able to use it to find other radio homepages.To: Bob Skwirot/ARRBcc: From: Peter Voth/ARRB Date: 08/06/98 09:37:34 AMSubject: Korean Internet RadioThese are homepages for Korean-language radio stations that broadcast on the Internet (One's in Korea, the other's in LA): www.radiokorea.com www.kbs.co.krThis one lets you click on an icon and hear the radio (as opposed to the others where you have to hunt around the site for that page). I tried this one out last night and heard something in a foreign language, so I assume that it works: www.mbc.co.kr/tv_r_live.htm These are lists of Korean radio stations available on the Internet. I don't know how much overlap there is on them: www.comfm.com/sites/rdirect/kr.html www.web-radio.com/in_g.html You'll need to download Real Player. There's a chance it might have come with AOL. If not, your browser will probably detect that you don't have it and take you to the site where you can download it. If you keep having problems, let me know.
