PMSubject: Secret CommunicationThis is a non-record E-mail, to give you some potential good news. Jeremy met with the CIA team and discussed "full utilization" with them in the friendliest way possible, and then discussed the potential game plan with the team leaders.Between now and the time Bob goes on leave, the 3 CIA team "youngsters" may be helping Laura with FBI matters, in their spare time.However, during the time Bob is gone for two weeks, they may be assigned "in toto" (with rare exceptions) to Me/"Us" for the purpose of making RIFs and/or doing fast track on the three boxes of backlog in the SCIF. I consider this good news. So, be prepared to hold some RIF-making "refresher training," and then to set these people loose on those 3 boxes of shit in the SCIF when Bob goes on leave. Or maybe two can make RIFs while one does fast track...whatever.I am going to call Will Kammer and tell him we need the disk for the 167 documents of J-3 stuff he gave us when he comes over next week...so we can modify the RIFs.
