To: Ron Haron/ARRBcc: (bcc: Non-Record/ARRB)From: Irene Marr/ARRBDate: 08/12/98 03:16:57 PMSubject: Re: LBJ LibraryAs I already reported, the Jackie Kennedy tapes will be released on September 18 along with the next release of presidential recordings. I will have more information on the oral history interviews by Friday. Regarding the remaining presidential recordings relating to the assassination, this is what I know: LBJL has stated that they initially checked AR recordings from Nov 63 to Feb 64; Sept-Oct 64 (Warren C.); and Nov. 66 to the end of the administration as this coincided with the Manchester Book and beginning of Garrison. Beyond the sweep for AR's, they have since opened up all recordings through August , 1964. This September along with the Jackie tapes, they will open all recordings through October 64. Thus, those recordings initially released as AR's can now also be listened to within the original context.. Regina Greenwell noted that the security classified ones were opened with very little redacted (5 seconds) but that was not an assassination related conversation.They are supposed to send any additional recordings pertaining to the assassination to the collection as they come across them. Regina did not have information regarding donor restricted information within the 1964 recordings. To: Irene Marr/ARRBcc: Laura Denk/ARRB From: Ron Haron/ARRB Date: 08/08/98 06:03:31 PMSubject: LBJ LibraryIrene -- Have you talked to the LBJ library recently? Their final declaration was due August 3 and we have not received it. Also, do you know what the latest status is with respect to the open items we had identified in our May 26 "compliance letter," including the status of the LBJ-Jackie Kennedy tapes, various oral history interviews, the remaining Presidential recordings relating to the assassination, and other items. --Ron
