Subject: Getting the Final Report ready for the Board on Tuesday

Body: Doug:I'm planning to close the office early today, in the time-honored office tradition of extending long weekends to include Friday afternoon. Given that the Board is planning to spend the entire day Tuesday the 8th working on the Final Report, I am, however, going to need help on a few little things before everyone heads out for Labor Day weekend.I am not quite finished with the Chapter on non-Federal records (now Chapter 9), but it is essentially a reorganization of yours and Eileen's second half of the old Chapter 6. So, it has Deeds of Gift, stuff that we received from local and state government entities, stuff we received from some of the medical witnesses, etc. . . I realize this will be difficult, since you haven't actually seen the edited product, but could draft a 1-2 paragraph conclusion about how it was groovy and useful to seek information and records from private citizens, private organizations, and state and local governments?Thanks, Laura
