Subject: morning assignment

I'm sure you're sorry you offered.I have just finished Chapter 1 (finally) and I have transferred it to the t:\drive. When you come in, will you print it and run 10 double-sided copies of it? You will see that I have put the Board members' new final report drafts in the conference room on the conference table, but chapter one is not there yet. The chapter is 13 textual pages long (+ a few pp. of endnotes) and I have already formatted it with headers and columns.The file is named--t:\final\chap1\chap1.col(the "col" stands for "columns")Thank you. Other than that, I'm tired and I have a weird knot growing under the skin on my forearm. I hope it is just from typing and is not some other bad thing. Oh. I just remembered I can e-mail it to you too.Here it is.See you
