Sure! The race is called "Lawyers Have Heart." It is a benefit for the American Heart Association and you do not have to be a lawyer to run. It occurs on June 4, 1995, at 8:30 a.m. It starts in Georgetown at Washington Harbor. I have a map of the course and I will bring it in tomorrow. I re-read the pamphlet yesterday and, in order to have a team, we actually all have to run the 10K. I'm confident that we can do it. Tom S. said he could do it, but I haven't talked to you and Dennis about it yet. We need five runners (one must be a woman -- that's me) in order to be a team. We will be in the "government" division. The cost is $17 per person (provided we pay by May 25) and includes, of course, a t-shirt. The after-party is supposedly great - its a big carnival with food provided by all of the various restaurants in Washington Harbor. Again, I will bring in the information tomorrow. Any ideas for a fifth ARRB runner?

Could you please provide me some of the particulars on the road race we are scheduled to partake in (eg date/time/distance/who is running etc) Thanks, Manuel
