It is open season for the TSP. You are eligible for to join this open season if 1) you came on board prior to January 1 or 2) if you have previous federal service and were previously enrolled in the TSP. For those of you not familiar with the TSP it is a tax deferred retirement/savings account. You can give up to 10% (pre-taxed) of your salary and the government will match with up to 5%. For more info, please come see me--I have brochures and sign-up sheets in my office.
