Subject: Re: Military guy stuff
I have read this part of the Dallas transcript!!!...as much as I would like to view "other films" of the assassination, I just found his account virtually impossible to believe...since he said it was PORTABLE VIDEO EQUIPMENT, and my personal impression of such equipment from that era is that HUGE backpacks were required, and these kinds of people/equipment would have been noticed in the background of the Zapruder, Nix, and Muchmore films...and they are not there.You're right...it's a great "tale" for the campfire, but is just too whacky and improbable to be believed.
