Subject: Re: -No Subject-

Would it make sense, given where we are with Quiroga and our impressions of this researcher, to ask her for copies of the FBI documents she's talking about? To: Phil Golrick/ARRBcc: From: Anne Buttimer/ARRB Date: 11/07/95 03:24:36 PM Subject: No Subject-I don't plan to respond to Pease about this at this time but wanted you to know about this if it has a place in your FBI records work.To: Anne_Buttimer @ JFK-ARRB.gov @ Internetcc: bcc: Anne Buttimer/ARRB)From: Pease @ netcom.com (Lisa Pease) @ Internet @ WORLDCOM Date: 11/07/95 10:47:37 AM CST Subject: No Subject-Hello - we talked on the phone once when you called for Jim DiEugenio. I was reading about the conference in an online magazine called FAIR PLAY and saw that you had recently talked to Carlos Quiroga. I ran across an interesting FBI document just a couple of days ago that said a Quiroga (FNU) was in Mexico when the border was closed just after the assassination. According to one report, Quiroga claimed to have known about the assassination before it happened. In a second report, that claim was said to be untrue but the FBI informant then added that Quiroga said they arrested a "spy" in Dallas - meaning LHO. Is Quiroga talking? How much was asked of him?
