Subject: Re: Future shipments of CIA documents

Body: What do you think about Barry's idea?My greatest concern is verifying that the documents actually get to the archives and that they are identified (by number only) in the Federal Register. Comments?

That would mean that we would not receive the documents that CIA is releasing on a consent agenda, but would receive a list of these documents' numbers as well as their RIF sheets. Otherwise, it becomes a real paperwork headache for Barry.
