Subject: Re: Sixth Floor

The 30th is fine with me. I would suggest that we seek a meeting with Mr. Sloan, Dallas City Secretary and overseer of the Dallas Municipal Archives. To my knowledge, he has not yet responded to your letter. I have suggested to Laura that she call Tom Young (Bronson family) to see if they have decided what to do.

Regardless of what he says, I asked Laura to see if he would meet with us when we come to Dallas. The other person not represented by Clary (at least not yet) is Marilyn Willis. I will call her. In addition, I think that we should pick up the trail on the Parkland Hospital records. Finally, there is the Tom Alyea situation in Tulsa. Maybe we can plot our course this week.
