Subject: How about a Job?
George:I am sorry it has taken so long to get back to you. We would like to offer you a position as Senior Attorney-Analyst at an annual salary of $40,000 plus standard government benefits. This offer is, of course, contingent on your being able to obtain the necessary security clearances within a reasonable time. Please let me know if hou are interested and we can begin working on the clearance process.Everyone who met you was very impressed and we very much hope that you will be able to join us. I hope everything is going well for you in Hong Kong.Best wishes,Jeremy Gunn
