Subject: Tina Houston, LBJ Library duplicate of Sciambra/Perry Russo interview
You'll recall that I was hoping to clear the above document, which is open in several other places in the JFK Collection. You suggested I call Tina Houston, rather than send a letter, because there was some other letter/issue she hadn't responded to as of yet. On 5/23 I called and got her voice mail. I left a detailed message, explaining how the record was already out, etc., and then I faxed her (the fax number was in our Agency Contacts database) a copy of the RIF. In my message, I definitely left it that I hoped to hear from her; that is, I didn't leave it: "If I don't hear from you, I'll assume you don't object to our releasing the document." Shock of shocks, she hasn't called me back. Only because it seemed to be a matter of some sensitivity, I request direction. Should I simply (1) call her a second time, (2) put the record before the Board as a "green" duplicate record or, (3) other? Please advise.
