I think we should brief the Board on the upcoming Zapruder meeting and explain what we intend to say. I do not think that the Board needs to arrive at any decisions about the Z Film at this meeting. In fact, there may be some strategic value not to. To: David Marwell/ARRBcc: Tom Samoluk/ARRB, Tracy Shycoff/ARRB, Christina Mays/ARRB From: Jeremy Gunn/ARRB Date: 05/31/96 02:23:34 PM Subject: Zapruder meeting We are scheduled to be the hosts of a meeting on the Zapruder film on Thursday, June 6 at 3:00 (though Kirk Manhardt of DOJ will be coming by for a pre-meeting at 2:45). Christina, would you please schedule the Board Room for the meeting. David, should we discuss this issue with the Board? To the extent that we are talking about possible litigation strategy, it would not need to be at an open meeting. To the extent the Board is discussing whether it is an assassination record, it should be at an open meeting. Because it has not been noticed as an agenda item, it may be worth delaying.
