Subject: Re: How about a Job?

George--It was good to finally hear from you. I have discussed the issues with David and have the following to report. First, we can raise your offer to $41,500, but that is as high as we can go. Second, we cannot (and have not) given anyone relocation expenses. Third, the start date is acceptable, pending security clearance confirmation. Fourth, you certainly may take annual leave to go to Geneva in October/November. So--will you join? Let us know. Best, Jeremy Gunn

Thank you very much for your recent phone message. I received it upon my return to Hong Kong from a work trip to Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Thank you for your offer of employment. I would very much like to work for your team. I am excited about the prospect of joining you in Washington, DC soon, and would like to request that you clarify the following points: (a) salary closer to $50,000 per year; (b) reasonable relocation expenses from Hong Kong to Washington (probably approximately $4,500 U.S. which includes shipping and a one-way air ticket); (c) start date early August, pending Security Clearance; and (d) one week to attend a United Nations Committee meeting in Geneva, Switzerland in October/November 1996. I look forward to your reply. Best regards,
