PMSubject:MinskNina Noring called about Minsk. (I asked her to leave you a voice mail message and transferred the call). I sent her a fax of your fax to Grafeld on 6-17 (copy in your in box) re Tokyo because she asked whether you planned a response. I told her you had communicated this to Peggy. She said she would have to try to find it in Peggy's absence. I told her not to bother, that I would fax her a copy right away.

Briefly, the message re Minsk:Minsk telegram was returned April 25 (didn't get into the computer so didn't come up on search when we would inquire about it ?). She cannot fax it to us because the embassy classified it, so she is sending it to us by registered mail. She thinks this is probably due to commentary in the proposed embassy response.There are 6 volumes in Russian. The Belarus government said we could see them but not make copies because they are going to publish them.
