Subject: Re: food

Okay. Let me ponder this overnight and I will have an answer for you tomorrow. I'm torn between (1) some sort of veggie main-dish thing, (2) some sort of vegetable/crackers/hummus thing, and (3) some sort of -- not-from-the-box-this-time -- brownie or other outrageous chocolate thing. Do you have a preference? Vacation was fabulous. Thanks for asking!

Here's what we have so far: salad, pasta salad, taco dip/chips, utensils, deviled eggs, a selection of assorted fresh fruit, a "blueberry dessert kind of thiing, probably pie", bagels, and sodas. Five people have volunteered to pitch in for the main course pot. So, I guess my response to your question is: anything you don't see on this list. How was your vacation?

Subject: Food
Hi. I want to bring food. What do we need?
