Subject: Re: July 9-10 Board meeting

I was responsible for 9 documents processed by the Board at the last meeting: 7 HSCA records and two NARA-WC records. The latter two were simply duplicates of a Garrison investigation interview of Perry Russo, which had been previously opened in the HSCA collection. Of the 7 HSCA records, 5 were opened in full, 1 vote was simply an upholding of SSN redactions in an already-open record and 1 was the opening of a record for the first time, with SSN redactions. The latter record was Marina Oswald's Social Security Administration file, open for the first time. FYI, the Board also voted to release suicide scene photos of George DeMorenschildt. The other records were of no particular interest. In addition to Board-processed documents, the July meeting also saw a goodly number of HSCA consent releases: approximately 45 CIA-referred documents (mostly Garrison-era docs) and some 70 FBI-referred documents. Hope this helps.
