Subject: Re: Slawson/Coleman Report (fwd)

My apologies for the delay in responding to your inquiry. The Board has reviewed and voted to release the Slawson/Coleman Report in full, with the exception of the name of the individual known as "John Scelso." You may be interested to know that the document, a 55 paged memorandum from David Slawson titled "Trip to Mexico City" (doc. # 104-10010-10250) will be available at the National Archives within a few weeks. I hope this information is helpful to you. Sincerely, Eileen Sullivan To: Eileen_Sullivan @ jfk-arrrb.gov (Eileen Sullivan) @ Internet cc: haapanen @ lcsc.edu @ Internet (bcc: Eileen Sullivan/ARRB) From: lpease @ netcom.com (Lisa Pease) @ Internet @ WORLDCOM Date: 08/05/96 08:26:14 AM CDT Subject: Slawson/Coleman Report (fwd) This is distressing - please explain? I would hope we are not trading one set of redactions for another. Thanks for any help you can provide, if you can. :)----- Forwarded message ----- Date: Sun, 4 Aug 1996 19:36:22 -0700 (PDT) From: Larry Haapanen <haapanen@lcsc.edu> To: lpease@netcom.com Subject: Slawson/Coleman Report Lisa, Earlier this year, I obtained from CTKA a copy of the Slawson/Coleman Report. It is, of course, much more complete than the version published by the HSCA in 1979 (X HSC 151-165). However, I was recently comparing the two versions, and discovered to my surprise that the version published in 1979 contains, in nine different places, words or sentences that are redacted in the version that was released in 1994! In total, there are 13 complete sentences, and parts of an additional three sentences, un-redacted as printed in 1979 but redacted in 1994. In case you, or anyone you know, is interested in this, here are the locations of the redactions: Page where redaction occurs in '94 version unredacted in XI HSC p. 4 (top) p. 152 (1 sentence) p. 77 (top) p. 155 (2 sentences) p. 84 (bottom) pp. 157-8 (3 sentences) p. 97 (bottom) p. 161 (3 sentences) p. 98 (middle) p. 161 (2 words) p. 100 (bottom) p. 162 (1 sentence) p. 104 (bottom) p. 163 (parts of 1 sentence) p. 106 (top) p. 163 (part of 1 sentence) pp. 109-110 p. 165 (3 sentences) Larry Haapanen
