Subject: Re: Farewell.

September 18, 1996Bob:I thank you for your kind words. No one could ask for nicer things to be said about oneself.Please know that I have enjoyed working with you, too. Your commitment, diligence, hard work and pleasant demeanor make you a fine colleague.I wish you the best in your future endeavors. I am sure you will be a success in whatever you choose to do.If there is anything I can ever do for you, let me know.Perhaps we will toil in the trenches together someday in another worthy cause. Until then, thank you and best wishes, my friend.TomTo:Tom Samoluk/ARRBcc:From:Bob Skwirot/ARRB Date:09/17/96 06:57:38

PMSubject:Farewell.Unfortunately, due to your trip to Los Angeles and to my vacation, I will not be here to say a proper good-bye to you when you leave at the end of the month. So, in this imperfect format, I must try to communicate how much of a pleasure it has been to work with you. Your voice has been one of enthusiasm and of reason. Your influence will be sorely missed in this office. You have always been available for any question or concern and have cheerfully offered a response. Farewell parties will never be the same without your presentations. We will get our work done, but it just won't be the same. But we will all move on sometime, and this is the right time for you. Good luck in your new job, in your marriage and in everything you do.
