

NR_key_name: 87D1F2F8A412530A852563BC006617FD
SendTo: CN=David Marwell/O=ARRB @ ARRB
CopyTo: DisplayBlindCopyTo:
BlindCopyTo: CN=R ecord/O=ARRB
From: CN=Douglas Horne/O=ARRB
DisplayFromDomain:
DisplayDate: 10/07/1996
DisplayDate_Time: 2:56:39 PM
ComposedDate: 10/07/1996
ComposedDate_Time: 2:35:08 PM
Subject: Re: Walt Brown

David, I do not know of any book with the title Bill Joyce has suggested may be the title of a book--I counter by wondering if that perhaps is the title of a lecture topic at the bookstore? Here are the 3 Walt Brown books I am familiar with (having read all 3): The People vs. Lee Harvey Oswald, 1992 (this book is a mock trial of Lee Harvey Oswald, which assumes Oswald survived the Ruby shooting, and which uses Warren Commission testimony from the 26 volumes to construct the "trial" testimony; it has a definite point of view [namely, that Oswald was a "patsy"]), but is a good way to become familiar with the many conflicts in the evidence which are published in the 26 W.C. volumes; Treachery in Dallas, 1995 (in this book Walt Brown handles the many conflicts in the physical and eyewitness evidence in a non-fiction format; he perceives a conspiracy in which corrupt Dallas police officials participated in a plot against the President, thinks the Secret Service is innocent of any culpability, believes the autopsy doctors have participated in a cover-up of the nature of the President's real wounds, and believes LBJ and Hoover participated--at the very least--in a massive cover-up; once again, Brown focuses on his specialty, the W. C. 26 volumes, and analysis of that evidence); JFK Assassination Quiz Book (this book is a very small trivia guide to the assassination). Walt Brown is a former FBI agent, and has a Ph.D. in history from Notre Dame. His acerbic wit turns some people off, but I find his writing interesting and stimulating. He is a very intelligent person and is a precise researcher who is good at citing his sources. He knows the 26 volumes inside out, and has published a research tool also, called: Referenced Index Guide to the Warren Commission. To: Douglas Horne/ARRBcc: From: David Marwell/ARRB Date: 10/07/96

10:20:51 AM Subject: Printout Doug: Can you draft a paragraph description of Brown's book that I can incorporate in a response to him. Thanks. To: David_Marwell @ jfk-arrrb.gov (David Marwell) @ internetcc: (bcc: David Marwell/ARRB) From: Wljoyce @ firestone.Princeton.EDU ("William L. Joyce") @ Internet @ WORLDCOM Date: 10/07/96 09:20:15 AM CDT Subject: Printout Begin forwarded message: David: I look forward to receiving the printout and to discussing this with you at your convenience. Do you know of a book, "Who Killed JFK? What We Don't Know," by Walt Brown? He's appearing at a local Barnes and Noble this week, tho' I don't think I can make it. But I am curious... Hoping all is well with you... Bill To: WLJOYCE <WLJOYCE@firestone> From: David Marwell <David_Marwell@jfk-arrrb.gov> Date: 4 Oct 96 17:46:10 Subject: Printout Mime-Version: 1.0 Content-Type: Text/Plain We have finally succeeded in getting a readable printout from the database. I'm not sure that it represents the best view, but I wanted to get it out to you before the end of the week.. It is on its way by FEDEX. Let's talk next week.

Body:
recstat: Record
DeliveryPriority: N
DeliveryReport: B
ReturnReceipt: Categories: