Dear Eileen, I have been following the events in New Orleans concerning yourselves and Harry Connick Snr for sometime and have written about it for a research journal in the UK. I am about to update any changes in the next journal and was wondering if you could let me know what the latest situation is? The last I heard was that Connick allowed a group of board members down to New Orleans to view the documents to see if they would accept copies instead of the originals. Once a decision was made they had to report back to Judge Livaudais in New Orleans. Also, I know that the business with Gary Raymond and Richard Angelico is really nothing to do with you, but do you happen to know what is happening with them? It would be appreciated if you could help with information on any of the above. I thank you for your time.
YOURS SINCERELY JUSTIN BOWLEY
