Dear Mr. Shackelford:Just wanted to let you know that I haven't forgotten about this request and I am working on getting any information I can for you.It would help me to know when your deadline is for submission to Review Magazine.Thank you for your continued patience.Eileen SullivanTo:Eileen_Sullivan @ jfk-arrrb.gov @ internetcc:cc: Eileen Sullivan/ARRB)From:mshack @ jun0.com (Martin R Shackelford) @ Internet @ WORLDCOM Date:10/29/96 02:03:40 AM CSTSubject:COPA PromiseDear Ms. Sullivan: It was good to meet you at COPA last weekend. Just thought I'd inquire whether you found out yet if staff hasdetermined the authenticity of the "former CIA employee" documentpresented to the Board by Jim DiEugenio at the LA. hearing. I'm in theprocess of completing the seven-part series I've been writing for ReviewMagazine (which has also been going on JFK Place on the Internet), andwanted to include it--if it's genuine. I understand that doing your job and Tom Samoluk's old job atthe same time is a juggling act which delays response time, so I alloweda bit of extra time for the ASAP response you indicated at COPA. Still, I hope to hear from you soon.Regards, Martin Shackelford
