I think I may have answered my own question, but please correct me if I'm wrong. I assume that I send the main letter to Harry Middleton, cc: Tina Houston, and in the first paragraph mention working with her as well as with Regina Greenwell and Claudia Anderson. Please advise if I'm missing anybody. Also, does it make sense to wait until after we have our conversation tomorrow to fill in the parts about what has/hasn't been done and to give them the appropriate credit?
