Subject: Re: Financial Numbers for FY 1996 Report

Just wanted to say and follow-up. Completed second day of work. Kind of tough -- new job, but same old place. I really do miss you guys -- and the work. But, it is great to be with my wife -- Carrie -- because we're both kinda going through the same thing with the new jobs. Other matters: Congrats to Gloria! Movies Ransom: saw it -- good action picture, but expected to much saw too many previews Truth About Cats and Dogs -- I never got beyond the title, Carrie loved it Father of the Bride II - Agree with you Diabolique -- wont' see it This weekend watched: The Juror - good movie, not great, but kept my attention Pallbearer - not my first choice to pick off of the shelf, but the pickins were slim -- stupid, but it improved in the second half Preview for the Weekend: Looks like the English Patient -- stay tuned I'll be in touch. Things have been hectic here both personally and professionally but I'll work on it this week. I can't believe you started your new job already--how was the first day? Hope you had a nice Thanksgiving. Gloria had her baby last weekend and Ron moved into his new house on Friday so we were very busy on this end. But I did get to see a few movies. Here's my review: Ransom--two thumbs up-- excellent Truth About Cats and Dogs--thumbs up Father of the Bride Part II--cute but not as good as the first one--still a thumbs up Diabolique--yuk,yuk,yuk--what was the point of this movie?--big thumbs down Have you seen any lately that you'd like to share? Take care and I'll hear from you soon I'm sure. Please advise me of the status. I have many other things still to do in other areas of the report, so the numbers are not holding the report up right now, but I was curious about their status. Happy Thanksgiving; maybe sneak in a few movies. I'll see you ... whenever!
