Subject: Re: Boston Base Hears You, Phoenix!

And good to hear from you, too! No FBI appeal article in the Arizona Republic today, I'm afraid, though there was a piece on a local JFK Jr. look-alike! No ARRB work as of yet, except occasionally jogging Brian's memory on things we went over a couple hundred times before I left (no reflection on him... no one could have remembered all the things we covered in the feverish close of my full-time ARRB career!). There's talk of my possibly conducting two interviews out this way of former Moscow embassy employees, circa 1959, but it's not been confirmed as of yet. We had a warm spell out here last week with temperatures in the high 70's, but we are heading the other way now: tonight they're predicting the first frost in six years in the Valley of the Sun, and today's high will only be about 55 F. Good luck with the AG's office, and stay in touch.
