Subject: Re: Frank Ragano

I will draft a letter to Ragano confirming that we will depose him on Feb 10-11. Also, the Court Reporter should be available on Febr 10 from 1pm to 6pm (this gives Jeremy and I the morning to meet with Ragano informally and review his documents) and on the next day from 9:30 am to 6pm. As for lunch, we'll just see what the Raganos want to do -- we can always run out and get some sandwiches for them if they want to eat in.

Date: 01/23/97 03:44:56 PMSubject: Frank RaganoI have spoken with the Ragano's several times today and I believe all of our travel arrangements/questions have been taken care of except two: 1) Did you relate to Mr. Ragano that in order for us to pay for his wife we need some type of medical certification? and 2) Can you prepare a letter that states that we have requested Mr. Ragano to be interviewed/deposed before us (you may have already done this and if so I'll need a copy). Apparently the hotel has changed their policy and in order to get him the govt. rate he will need to present something like this (in lieu of a subpoena) signed by the general counsel along with his travel orders.I am going to call Miller reporting and reserve a court reporter for Monday the 11th and Tuesday the 12th. Also, please think about what lunch arrangements need to be made. Maybe you, Ron and I ought to get together and go over some of the details soon. Thanks.
